

Lets make mistakes and learn

Mistakes are important when something is learned from them. Below are the key questions that a teacher can ask a child about in order to learn something from them.

Why we make mistakes?

How do you feel when you make mistakes?

What mistakes we are doing?

What can we do when we make a mistake?

What can we learn from mistakes?

What are the consequences of mistakes?

Did you make any mistake today?

What mistake did you make?

How did you feel?

What did you do?

Did you learn something?

You have to learn something new that you will not repeat the mistakes?